Student Code of Conduct

We want every day at Mountain Kim Martial Arts, LLC to be enjoyable for your child(ren), their campmates, and all the staff and families involved in our Summer Camp Program. Therefore, we have rules and structure in place to help cultivate a safe and friendly learning environment, in which students of all ages, levels, and backgrounds can grow and thrive through martial arts. Please read over the following rules with your child(ren), ensure that they understand them, and have a conversation with them in case clarification is needed. This will help us help them have a wonderful experience at Mountain Kim Martial Arts, LLC Summer Camp Program!

Basic Rules of the Dojang: (1) Safety first!, (2) Respect People, and (3) Respect Property

- Teasing and bullying are not permitted.
- Use appropriate language.
- Keep hands & feet to oneself and maintain self-control.

Not abiding by these rules can result in suspension from the program. Masters, instructors, and other teaching/supervising staff will manage disruptive behavior by addressing it with the child(ren) and discussing what is appropriate behavior as per the Student Code of Conduct. If inappropriate behavior persists, a parent will be contacted. Repetitive violations of the Student Code of Conduct, despite multiple warnings and contacting the parent, will result in the student's suspension from the program. The length of suspension is at the Master's discretion.

We have read and understand the rules and Student Code of Conduct, and agree to uphold them to maintain a safe and enjoyable camp experience for everyone.
